HAS NARROW ESCAPE

R. L. J. Gaylord, on Bicycle, in Collision With Auto.

QUICK WORK SAVES LIFE

Machine Dashes Around Street Corner But Prompt Appliance of Brakes by Captain Robinson Prevents What Might Have Been Serious Accident.

Mr. Robert L. J. Gaylord, traveling salesman for a wholesale drug house in Richmond, narrowly escaped being crushed beneath the large automobile wagon of Capt. J. C. Robinson, in South King street, at noon yesterday. Mr. Gaylord had mounted his bicycle and was facing Queen street, when Capt. Robinson came around the corner of King and Queen street in the delivery automobile wagon. The quick work of Capt. Robinson in applying the breaks prevented a most serious accident, as Mr. Gaylord's wheel was drawn under the front wheel of the auto-wagon. The bike was damaged, while Mr. Gaylord jumped to the street, slightly spraining his ankle.

The accident happened just at the time that section of King street was filled with people going to and from the postoffice for the noon day mail and was witnessed by a number of citizens. Mr. Gaylord's quick work in jumping and Capt. Robinson's absolute control of his auto-wagon combined to prevent an accident of serious results.

DEATH OF MRS. BROWNLEY SOON FOLLOWS DAUGHTER

Bride of Just a Year Passes Away Within Week After Her Infant Dies.

Mrs. Gracia Hart Brownley, wife of E. W. Brownley, died at her home in West End at an early hour yesterday morning. Her infant daughter died just a week ago and Mrs. Brownley has been ill since the death of the child.

Mrs. Brownley, who was just 29 years old, was Miss Hart before her marriage to Mr. Brownley a year ago. She was highly esteemed by a wide circle of friends.

The body, accompanied by Mr. Brownley, was taken to Wakefield yesterday and today will be buried beside the remains of the deceased daughter.

MR. TOPPING IS HURT.

West End Contractor is Bruised About Face in Fall From Car.

Henry Clay Topping, a contractor living in 222 Holt street, was bruised about the face and shoulders by falling from a trolley car in Armistead avenue about 9:15 o'clock last night. Mr. Topping had boarded the car and was coming down town, when he suddenly fell, but just what caused him to lose his balance has not been fully determined. He was able to walk after the fall and went into Oscar Williams' drug store, where his injuries were attended by Mr. Williams.

Mr. Topping then went to his home, where Dr. Harry D. Howe attended him. Mr. Topping's injuries are not expected to cause him serious trouble.

DR. PILCHER IS CALLED

Phoebus Baptist Church Wants Richmond Minister.

BELIEVED HE WILL ACCEPT

Prominent Divine of the Virginia Association Spent Several Days in Phoebus and Was Impressed With the Work to be Done.

The congregation of the Phoebus Baptist church, on Friday night, extended a unanimous call to Rev. J. M. Pilcher, D. D., of Richmond, to become their pastor. Dr. Pilcher, who is one of the best known ministers in the Baptist Association of Virginia, spent several days in Phoebus looking over the field and work there and the congregation has every reason to hope that he will accept their call to come to them.

Dr. Pilcher's coming to Phoebus would mean a great deal to the Baptists of that town, as it is recognized that Dr. Pilcher is a splendid worker and an able minister.

Although the call was just forwarded to the Richmond minister yesterday, the church expects to receive Dr. Pilcher's answer in a day or two.

No Faith in Postponements.

Just when Mrs. Ackroyd had finished packing her trunks, and after William Ackroyd had bought railway tickets for her and their two daughters, little Bessie came down with a severe case of whooping cough. The doctor positively refused to let the child start on a long journey, and even if he had thought it safe for the little one to leave home he assured Mrs. Ackroyd that she would not be permitted to take the patient into a hotel anywhere.

"Isn't it a shame?" the distressed lady wailed. "Here we are with everything in our trunks, and my husband has even bought our berth in the sleeper."

"It is unfortunate, but I don't know what you can do except sit down and wait for four or five days. It may be safe then for you to start away."

When her husband got home that evening Mrs. Ackroyd was weeping. "Don't take it so hard, dear," he said. "It might be a good deal worse. Our little one is likely to get along all right. The doctor says the case isn't an unusually severe one, and when I telephoned him this afternoon he said he thought it might be safe for you to start away by the end of the week."

"I know. He told me the same thing. But I feel that we'll never go. I never postponed anything yet that didn't turn out badly. I once postponed a wedding, and the marriage never took place."

Halt on here, for William Ackroyd was still sitting in a corner alone, thinking it over.—Chicago Record-Herald.

Frightened Off.

A Washington car conductor born in London and still a cockney has succeeded in extracting thrills from the alphabet-imparting excitement to the names of the national capital's streets. On a recent Sunday morning he was calling the streets thus:

"Haltah!"
"High!"
"Jay!"
"Kay!"
"Hell!"

At this point three prim ladies picked up their prayer books and left the car.—Lippincott's.
